

Wine Pick of the Week

Wednesday, April 15, 2009

Wine Pick of the Week

Pessagno 2006 Pinot Noir "Four Boys Vineyard, Santa Lucia Highlands" ($55)

If you are getting money back from the IRS, I can't think of a better way to celebrate than with this stunning Pinot. Superlatives reign: powerfully complex bouquet, silky texture, exquisite balance, glorious fruit and wonderful refinement. If you can afford to splurge, buy this soon, as only a few cases made it to Arizona. Serve this beauty with grilled meats, especially lamb.

Your favorite store can order this wine for you. Prices may vary.