Great Holiday Buys- 95, 94 point California Pinot Noirs

We're always looking for highly rated, well-priced Pinots and these two wines certainly fit the bill! High end Pinot Noirs can get expensive very quickly, but we were excited to find these excellent wines with great scores and even better prices!

We know many of you saw the email about the Pessagno before Thanksgiving, and it quickly became a holiday hit. We're also very lucky to have the 2007 Sojourn Pinot Noir, a 95 point rated Pinot that is another great wine for gift giving!

We have long been fans of many of the wines from Pessagno, however, the 2007 Lucia Highlands Pinot might end up turning out to be our biggest selling wine from this estate in years. Rated 94 Points by Wine Enthusiast, this outstanding Pinot Noir is now in stock...at just $24.98 per bottle.
